

LATE FIGURES SHOW
REPUBLICAN GAINSTHE PLURALITIES GROW AS THE DAYS PASS.

Grand Old Party Will Have 250 Members of the Next Congress—Governorship of Nebraska May Be Contested Tennessee Still In Doubt—Latest From New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Republicans now claim they will have 250 members of the next house of congress. The republican committee claims 259 districts, but there is liable to be a falling off. Finis E. Downing, democrat, Sixteenth Illinois district, is said to have conceded his defeat by Gen. John I. Rinaker, republican. This makes a solid republican delegation from Illinois.

In Missouri, the congressional delegation will probably consist of eleven republicans and four democrats. In North Carolina the democrats have lost five congressional districts to fusion republican-populist opponents and Settle, republican, is re-elected. In Kentucky Owens, democratic, claims 118 plurality, but Denny, republican, will contest his seat in congress.

The republicans claim frauds have been committed in Virginia and are preparing to make contests in four or five congressional districts. J. Hampton Hoge, the republican candidate for congress in the Sixth District of Virginia, will contest Oley's seat. Louisiana republicans will carry the election contest for three congressmen. In Texas the populists claim four congressmen, but the election of two only seems certain from the returns. Two republicans are sure of seats. Representative McMillin of Tennessee is possibly defeated.

There seems no longer any doubt that the republican-populist fusion party in North Carolina has carried the legislature by a safe majority. One republican and one populist will doubtless be chosen to succeed Senators Ransom and Jarvis democrats. Latest figures show the next senate will be composed as follows:

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—With the exception of governor everything in Nebraska went republican. The legislature on joint ballot stands: Republicans, 92; populists, 24; democrats, 8; doubtful, 9. The republicans say they will contest Holcomb's election, but on what grounds is not known.

Tennessee Still In Doubt.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 9.—Republicans claim to have elected their state ticket by a majority of from 10,000 to 12,000. They will have a majority of sixteen in the lower house. Budd Elected in California.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 9.—The plurality of Budd, the democratic candidate for governor in California, will be 2,000. The republicans have elected the remainder of the state ticket and will have a majority in the next legislature. They also claim six of the seven congressmen.

GEN. OLNEY ON LABOR.

Right of Workmen to Join Trade Unions Is Defended.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 9.—The controversy between the receivers of the Reading railroad company and such employees as are members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen has prompted an expression of opinion from Attorney-General Olney in the form of a letter to Judge Dallas of the United States Circuit court, before whom the case is pending. Attorney-General Olney holds that labor unorganized is practically powerless, that in combinations such as this lies the only safeguard of the workingman in his dealings with organized capital; and that his right to belong to such a union—beneficial in intent and purpose—is a legal right which he can not be deprived of.

COULN'T WAIT FOR LAW.

Negro Taken to the Outskirts, Hanged, and Riddled With Bullets.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 9.—Lee Lawrence, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. Polk in Jasper county and had been brought to this city for safe keeping was taken to Monticello yesterday morning. He was tried at the September term of the Superior court and sentenced to be hanged Nov. 30. The neighbors of the woman were not satisfied, however, and taking the negro from the officers carried him to the outskirts of the town and hanged him, riddling his body with bullets.

Bloodshed in the Ashland District.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 9.—John Traynor, marshal of Athens, Ky., shot and killed Isaac Davidson, last night. He also seriously cut Lew Sharp, a farmer of the Athens neighborhood. They quarreled over the election, and while Sharp and Traynor were fighting Davidson tried to separate them, when Traynor shot him. Traynor gave himself up.

MASS FOR THE CZAR WAS SAID TODAYPRESIDENT CLEVELAND AND THE CABINET ATTEND.

Ceremonies Occurred at the Russian Legation in Washington this Morning—The Same Services Were Also Held in the Chapel Where the Body Lies at Livadia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Mass for the repose of the czar was said the Russian legation to day and President Cleveland and the members of the cabinet attended.

LIVADIA, Nov. 9.—The first mass for the repose of the soul of Alexander III. was celebrated yesterday morning in the Byzantine chapel, where the remains of the czar are lying in state. The mass was attended by the officers of all the regiments in this vicinity. The ceremony was most impressive, all present holding lighted tapers. As the body of the czar lay in its coffin it was noticed that the late emperor's face was but little altered. It had a placid expression and the form of the dead czar seemed as hurculean as ever. The broad blue ribbon of the Order of St. Andrew was placed across his breast and over it his hands were folded. Beside the bier were two Cossacks of the Terek body guard, two Dvornoyi grenadiers, two chamberlains and two refectmen of the Sixteenth corps. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the second mass, at which the czar, zarina, Princess Alix of Hesse and the princess of Wales and all the imperial and royal suits attending, was celebrated at the same church. The streets of the town are very quiet and there are very few visitors here. The body of the late czar was moved at 8 o'clock this morning and escorted with great ceremony on board the Russian cruiser Pamjat Merkoovya for transportation to Sebastopol.

THE CHINESE WERE TRAPPED.

Japanese Worked a Stratagem on Them at Port Arthur.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that consternation has been caused by the discovery that Tei Yang's squadron has been caught in a trap at Port Arthur by the Japanese, owing to the neglect or overruling of Li Hung Chang's orders. Li Hung Chang disclaims any responsibility in the matter. The correspondent of the Standard at Berlin says that Germany will adhere to her policy of reserve and will certainly do nothing to limit the demand Japan may make on China. He adds a remark made by the North German Gazette, a semi-official paper, to the effect that the Chinese ambassador has already experienced difficulty in securing joint action on the part of the powers.

Chile May Sell a Ship to China.

VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 9.—The cabinet crisis continues and strenuous efforts are being made by leading men to form a coalition of liberals and radicals in the cabinet. Pratt for an enormous sum, also for China.

WHEAT FEEDING CONTINUES.

Likelihood that 75,000,000 Bushels of the Present Crop Will Be So Used.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 9.—The Price Current summarizes the crop conditions for the past week as follows: Special returns on wheat—feeding to animals indicate that 40,000,000 bushels have already been consumed and 60,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels are likely to be fed from the present crop. The larger quantity implies approximately 110,000,000 bushels as the year's exportable total, including supplies from last year, half of which is already exported. Interior millers are having difficulty in securing home supplies and are looking to the centers. There has been but unimportant increase in the corn movement, the weather not favoring the drying process. The week's packing of hogs amounted to 525,000, against 205,000 for the corresponding week of last year.

Miners May Strike.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Nov. 9.—The miners of this city claim the general manager is discharging men who are opposed to him in politics. In consequence the Miners' union has called a meeting for to-day, when this matter will be taken up. If a strike is ordered it will affect 2,000 men.

MEN BLOWN TO BITS
WITH DYNAMITE

THREE ARE KILLED AT HUNTINGTON, INDIANA.

They were Working in a Sewer when the Explosive was Accidentally Discharged—Two Old People Killed by Coal Gas at Elgin—Six Killed at Pittsburgh.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Nov. 9.—Three men were killed and many injured in this morning by an explosion of a box of dynamite on the sewer work.

ELGIN, Ill., Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Peck were found dead last evening at their house on Dundee avenue. They were last seen alive Tuesday evening. The room where the bodies lay was filled with coal gas. The fire was still burning in the large base burner. Mr. Peck's body was in bed and his wife's was on a lounge near by. Apparently both had died most peacefully and had not moved after lying down. Both were 72 years old. Mr. Peck had retired from active life and lived on his competency. An inquest will be held.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 9.—In clearing away the wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Rosensteel siding, two miles east of Rockwood, the body of G. W. Hooten, both of Baltimore. They are severely hurt, but neither of them fatally. None of the passengers were injured beyond slight bruises.

TO IMPROVE THE NAVY.

Commodore Sampson Presents Plans for More Armor and New Ordinances.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The two American armor plants at Bethlehem and Homestead, according to the annual report of Commodore Sampson, chief of naval ordnance, are the best equipped in the world, their developments in the past year by the addition of powerful forging presses and "Harveyizing" furnaces being of such character as to represent actual advances in the art. These establishments have now practically completed existing armor contracts, and should appropriations for additional armored vessels be deferred beyond the next session of congress these magnificent plants, which cost $10,000,000, would be practically idle for more than a year, their organizations would be broken up, and the skilled labor, created at much expense of time and money, either lost or diverted. Under the circumstances Commodore Sampson believes that better terms can be obtained on new contracts at the present time than later. Existing vessels require 20,000 tons of armor, 12,000 of which have already been accepted and delivered, and by September next year no government work will remain unfinished. Commodore Sampson treats at considerable length the subject of armor development in Europe and this country and concludes that the American "Harveyized" product is unequal elsewhere in the world. Notwithstanding attempted frauds, he is confident that ballistics tests prevent any inferior plates being accepted by the government. The report calls for $500,000 to be expended in commencing to provide armor for the steamers registered under the provisions of the subsidy acts, which make them available for use by the United States as transports or cruisers. In case such vessels as the New York, Paris and the new St. Louis should be called into service (which would be the most natural means of increasing our naval strength) it would require many months to provide batteries for them. No guns are now available for the purpose and none are authorized. It takes time to build modern rifles, and to be prepared for an emergency, such guns should be commenced at once. It is estimated that 6 six-inch, 159 five-inch, 158 four-inch and 377 secondary battery rapid fire rifles would be required to arm thirty-three of the most suitable steamers on the Atlantic and eight on the Pacific coast.

NEW ENGLAND BLIZZARD.

Telegraph Communication Cut Off in the Southern States.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 9.—The second blizzard in three days swept southern New England yesterday. Several inches of damp snow fell. Traffic was delayed on electric roads and what few telephone and telegraph wires were left intact by Tuesday's storm were snapped or badly crippled by the weight of snow and ice. There have been no direct wires to New York since Monday and press matter is being sent around the storm via White River Junction, Vt., back to Springfield, thence to Troy, N. Y., to Albany, and down the Hudson. The damage to shipping has not been great, as the stormy weather of the week kept most vessels in port. A steamer arrived at Newport yesterday from Block Island and reported the fishing schooner Eddie Weeks wrecked on the island. The crew was saved by life savers after being in the rigging several hours.

Prof. Zacharin's house at Moscow was also attacked by an angry mob. National subscriptions have been opened for a great monument to be erected to the memory of Alexander III. "The Great Peacemaker." This work was undertaken by order of the new czar, and it is understood the monument will be erected at Moscow. The work of constructing the tomb of Alexander III. in the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul has commenced. The remains of the late czar will rest beside the tombs of his mother and father near the entrance of the cathedral.

Mutiny Among Brazilian Troops.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 9.—Some artillerymen here, having been ordered to Pernambuco, flatly refused to move, and a detachment of infantry was sent to the artillery barracks to restore order. It is feared the mutinous spirit will show itself among other troops.

MERCURY TO PASS OLD SOL.

Transit Occurs To-Morrow, But Is Visible Only with a Ten Diameter Glass.

As the majority of our friends the enemy are now engaged principally in "stargazing," it may be of interest to them to know that Mercury passes the sun to-morrow, becoming a morning star. Its course crosses the disk of the sun so that the interesting phenomenon occurs of a transit of Mercury. This transit is a very favorable one, especially so far as the path of the planet is concerned. The planet will enter the sun's disk a little below the east point of the latter. Its nearest approach to the sun's center will be a little more than four and one-quarter minutes of arc or about one-eighth of the sun's angular diameter. The planet will leave the sun's disk at a point a little more than half way from the north towards the west point of sun's limb. The apparent diameter of Mercury will be five seconds of arc or very nearly one two-hundredth of the sun's apparent diameter. A telescope having a magnifying power of ten or more will be required in order to see readily the planet against the sun. The time of first contact will be 9 h., 55 m., 51 s., a. m., and of last contact 3 h., 12 m., 13 s., p. m. About 1 m. and 45 s. will be required for the planet to cross the sun's edge.

A transit of Mercury as a phenomenon is exactly similar to the famous transit of Venus, and in past years the former has been carefully observed largely in preparation for the latter. The interest of the present transit, however, lies chiefly in the observed position of the planet for Mercury and in the physical conditions indicated about the planet. The observations of the transits of Mercury for the last two centuries have been examined with reference to the question of the gradual diminution of the earth's rotation due to the tidal friction and other influences, but they give no certain indication of such an offset.

Venus also passes the sun November 20, becoming an evening star. Mars is the bright, ruddy star in the eastern evening sky. Jupiter rises later, Saturn rises about two hours before the sun in the middle of the month.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month are: To the west: Vega, Altair, the Northern Cross. To the east: The bright stars of Andromeda, and later, Capella and Alcebaran.

CLERK BATES GOT A ROSTER FOWL

Rooster Was An Election Present From His Brother at Fulton.

City Clerk Bates feasted today on republican enthusiasm presented by a staunch republican brother. Clerk Bates' father was a republican of the pronounced type, and all the sons except George, trained under that banner. Ed. E. Bates of Fulton, never lets an opportunity pass to prick George of his democracy. Yesterday morning Ed. received the news of the election and straightway slaughtered a rooster, which he sent to George, labelled "Democracy's Bird—Dead, dead, dead—New York 150,000, Ohio, Indiana, and all the rest. Wisconsin's Peck (ing) Ro(o)ster is no more."

EACH SNOWFLAKE WAS A BALLOT.

That's What H. S. Sloan Said in a Past Speech.

Henry S. Sloan was called upon for a speech at the republican jollification meeting at Madison Wednesday night and responded in these words: "Gentlemen there isn't much to say. Early yesterday morning a snow storm started in New York, gradually increasing until it extended over the entire United States and each little flake was a republican ballot!"

If the republicans have a plurality in Wisconsin of 40,000, that's just 1,000 plurality to every $1,000 of toll there was in the first order for rosters.—Madison Democrat.

Misery After Meals. The oppressive embargoes levied upon the inner man by his inveterate enemy, dyspepsia, after meals, are lifted and the yoke cast off by that sovereign medicinal liberator from bodily ailments, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Heartburn, flatulency, oppression at the pit of the stomach, the presence of bile where it does not belong, are alike remedied by this potent reformer of a disordered condition of the gastric organ and the liver. It is the prince of tonics and stomachics, invigorating at the same time that it remedies. Both appetite and sleep are improved by it. A wineglass before or after meals, and before retiring, will be found an efficient restorative of the ability to digest and assimilate and rest tranquilly. Use it for malarial, kidney and rheumatic trouble and for constipation. For the aged and infirm it is highly beneficial.

FAIRFIELD INFESTED WITH THIEVES.

People Are Suspicious of Teams That Pass In the Night.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. MULES MAKE TRACKS BUT TROLLEYS DON'T

STREET CAR COMPANY DON'T LIKE TO PAVE.

An Ordinance Has Been Drawn Up Amending the Franchise Is that they Will Not Have to Fix the Street Between the Rails—Points they Claim.

An ordinance has been prepared to amend the street railway franchise to relieve the company from the expense of keeping the street in repair between its rails and from paving and grading, when such improvements are ordered. The franchise now requires the street railway company to keep the street between its rails in order, and when a street is paved, to pave not only between its rails but one foot on each side of the track. The amendment will relieve the company of the expense of this work, and it will revert either to the city or the property owners.

It is claimed that when the ordinance was adopted the railway company used mules for motive power, and that then it was reasonable that the company be required to keep their road bed in order, in compensation for the right of way. The change of motive power from mules to the trolley system, alters this, in that the company have no use for the road bed except for their rails; they do not disturb the street once their track is laid, and that is too much of a burden to be compelled to pave and keep the streets in repair when they do not use them. The ordinance will probably be introduced at the next council meeting. Just what disposition will be made with it is not known.

A STORY TOLD.

A little work, a little play.
To keep us going—and so good day!
A little warmth, a little light
Of love's bestowing—and so good night!
A little fun to match the sorrow
Of each day's growing—and so good morrow!
A little trust that when we die
We reap our sowing—and so good by!

A DETECTIVE'S YARN.

"It is not very often," said Detective Riley, "that a detective is forced to assume a disguise to get information, but sometimes it is absolutely necessary. The last time that I had to go into a den of thieves in a bogus character was a good many years ago, and I had a rather lively experience and enough of excitement to stand me until the end of my days."

"We received a report of the escape of a crook from the Charlestown prison, and from what the authorities there had been able to gather it was supposed that the convict had come to this city. They sent a description of the man, and the only thing that I saw was of any use was that on the man's right arm were the initials 'A. T.' with a flag above and anchor below them in india ink. I looked over our records and found that we had there the pedigree of Abe Taylor, and he had the same marks on his right arm. The rest of the description that we had did not tally very closely with the one sent from Charlestown, but I thought that there was good ground for the belief that the escaped convict was Taylor, who was one of the most successful jail breakers in the country."

"In order to be certain of the identity of the convict I went to Charlestown. I found that the man had been convicted under the name of John Smith for the robbery of the Pittsfield bank, and the style of the work was in line with the business usually touched off by Taylor. I took a run over over to Pittsfield, got a description of the two men who had done the bank out of $160,000 and became convinced that the man who had been shot and arrested and who escaped was Abe Taylor, and that his partner was Jerry Connors."

"I knew that I was up against a stiff game, and on the train from Boston I laid out a plan which I thought would give me a show to get on the track of the men. Abe and Jerry I knew were partners with Petey Slade, who ran a notorious fence and dive in Washington street, near Canal, and I made up my mind that some time or other the pair of them would land in Slade's place. I decided that my strongest hold would be to get in with Slade and his gang on their own terms. I knew the risk I was taking, for the gang were about the toughest set of thugs and assassins in the city and would not hesitate to slit a man's wizen in a second upon the slightest provocation. I put up a scheme which I thought would beat their game, and it worked to the queen's taste."

"When I reached the city, I had myself arrested for a fictitious crime and was tried and sent to the Blackwell's Island penitentiary in a perfectly regular way, with the assistance, of course, of Recorder Hackett. The warden in the penitentiary knew my game and aided me in carrying out the business. After I had been locked up a few days I made my escape from the island after dark. The next day the newspapers contained a thrilling account of my escape, and the story was that I dug my way out of my cell and swam across the river to this city. I must have had a terrible time, as the papers told it, but as a matter of fact I crossed the river in a boat, and the story was given out to make me solid in the work I had laid out to do."

"When I reached the city, it was dark, and I walked down to Slade's dive in my convict's rig, which had been soaked with water to carry out my scheme. I sent a boy into the dive to get Slade to come to me, and I told him the story of my escape and said that a thief who had started to get away with me, but had lost his nerve when it came to taking the swim, had told me that when we reached the city we could go to Slade's and put up until the thing blew over."

"Slade was very cautious. He felt my clothing and took me in a back room in the den and carefully examined the clothes and shoes to see if they were the genuine convict's outfit. He was satisfied on that point, but was suspicious when I could not give him the name of my partner. I did not dare to fake a name, for Slade knew where every thief was who had been sent away that he ever did any business with. I told him that the man was known to me as Jack, and as Jack McCarthy, one of Slade's gang, happened to be on the island at the time my story was taken as being straight, and I was given a room on the second floor to bunk in. The next day Slade saw the story of my escape in the papers and became my friend at once."

"I must admit that I never got better treatment from any one than I did from Slade and the gang. He told them that I was all right, and they were glad to know a fellow who had the nerve to swim across the East river, where the tide runs like a mill race. I had to keep in the house all the time, and in case the police got on to me in any way I was shown a way that I could escape by getting into an underground passage, which led to a sewer in the street. I was fed like a fighting cock, and nothing turned up for about three weeks. Then early one morning, while I was sleeping, some one came into my room, and I heard a whispered consultation. There was a dim light in an adjoining room, and I could see four figures. My hair stood up on end, for I naturally thought that they were talking about me, and that I had been found out. I made up my mind to give them as good a fight as there was in me, but after awhile the men went into the next room, and I heard them get into bed. In the morning my heart gave a big thump when I saw that the new arrivals were

Abe Taylor, Jerry Connors and Andy Cummings, the men I was after.

"My first idea was to connect with the outside and have the place pulled, and I would have done this if I had not learned that a scheme had been put up to turn off a savings bank in Newark. Cummings and Taylor had been a week in Newark planting the place. I was introduced to them by Slade, and Taylor took me right away as a jail breaker after his own heart. I worked my cards as skillfully as I could and let the gang know that I was dying of dry rot. In the course of my business I had naturally picked up every detail of the crook's trade and let Taylor know that I was anxious to get into some good bank lift. They waited about a week and then got word from Newark that the bank was ripe. I was delighted when Taylor told me I could go along, and I carried some of the jimmies."

"When we reached the Pennsylvania depot in Jersey city, we split up, and I went to a lavatory. I found a bootblack there, and I gave him a message for headquarters here and the chief of the Newark police, informing them of the attack that was to be made on the savings bank. The boy did his work right, and when we reached Newark I saw that we were picked up by some of the local police on the dead quiet. We went to the house of Red King and learned that a hole had been pushed through the wall of the building adjoining the bank. When we left King's to go to the bank, I saw three New York detectives on the way. I could not arrange for any signal and did not know when the attack would be made upon us."

"A dozen policemen were in the bank office waiting for us, and after we had got through the hole behind the safe and were getting ready to go to work the police rushed in on us. I dashed for the hole and fell on purpose so that I blocked it, and as every man was covered with a gun there was nothing to do but surrender. I went in with the gang, and they did not learn who I was until the next day. The gang swore they would kill me, but haven't done it yet. Taylor and Connors were sent to Massachusetts on the Pittsfield affair, and the rest of the gang got a taste of Jersey justice."—New York Recorder.

Breslau's Trick.

Breslau, a celebrated juggler, being at Canterbury with his troop, met with such bad success that they were almost starved. He repaired to the churchwardens and promised to give a night's takings to the poor if the parish would pay for hiring a room, etc. The charitable bait took, the benefit proved a bumper, and next morning the churchwardens waited upon the wizard to touch the receipts.

"I have already disposed of dem," said Breslau. "De profits were for do poor. I have kept my promise and given the money to my own people, who are do poorest in dis parish."

"Sir," exclaimed the churchwardens, "this is a trick."

"I know it," replied the conjurer. "I live by my tricks."—London Tit-Bits.

Mercurial Poison

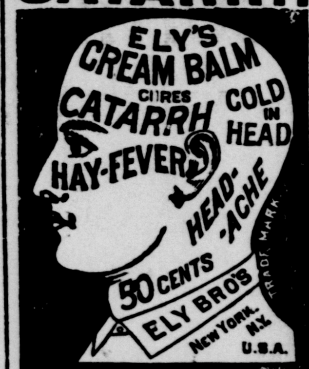

Is the result of the usual treatment of blood disorders. The system is filled with Mercury and Prash remedies—more to be dreaded than the disease—and in a short while is in a far worse condition than before. The most common result is Rheumatism, for which S. S. S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to more than twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of S. S. S. I improved rapidly, and am now a well man, completely cured. I can heartily recommend your wonderful medicine to anyone afflicted with this painful disease.

We Pay for Ideas

We need TWENTY or MORE original and striking designs for Newspaper Advertisements of CLAUSS SOAP. The manufacturer, W. K. Fairbank Company, will pay TEN DOLLARS EACH for approved drawings with appropriate reading; or $5.00 each for designs or reading matter only. This offer is open to all. The competition will close December 1. As soon as possible after that date we will pay for accepted designs and return the others. Remember, for complete, acceptable advertisements we pay

Directions.—Make drawings with black ink on heavy white paper, or card board. Do the work in outline. Elaborate shading will not print well. Space in papers will be four inches square. Draw to larger scale if you prefer, but have design square. The idea is most important. If that is good we can have it redrawn and still give you credit. Avoid poetry. Get up an ad. that would make you buy the article.

Points.—Santa Claus is a pure, high-grade soap—made for laundry and general household use—a favorite wherever known. Merits generous praise. Sold by all grocers, wholesale and retail. Do your best, and send results promptly. Address (only)

SUCCESS AND RESPONSIBILITY.

When the unusually heavy vote of last Tuesday is analyzed, it will be found that three elements contributed to the unprecedented victory: The straight republican, a large percentage of the independent contingency, and a liberal sprinkling of the straight democrats.

The first element belongs to the party, and can always be relied upon.

The second has held the balance of power for the last four years, and represents an intelligent class of conservative business men, whose theories are not always in harmony with either of the two great parties.

The third came into the republican camp this year for self protection, and if they enjoy the associations and benefits, as it is to be hoped they will, there is no good reason why they should not remain indefinitely.

The result of this triple combination is one of the greatest victories that ever crowned the efforts of any party.

It means to the republican party not only success, but responsibility, calling for wisdom and tact, and the most careful thought and consideration.

The great influx of new material if properly assimilated, will work into the warp and woof of the republican party making it invincible for generations to come. The south, abandoning party ties and ignoring party lines will realize for the first time in thirty years the significance of association with a party that advocates and believes in a government for all the people. Under the stimulus of this new administration her undeveloped resources and industries will take on new life and the dawn of a new era of prosperity will soon be recognized.

The northern democrats, who for the first time, cast in their lot with the party that for years they have regarded as political enemies, will realize that prosperity and general welfare, is of more importance than party ties and with the coming of better times, much of prejudice will vanish.

The independent voter who usually occupies a critical position, and is ever on the alert to note mistakes, will watch with more than ordinary interest, the work of the party that he has helped back into power.

That much will be expected in the way of reform is not a matter of doubt, but due consideration will be made for the fact that a democratic administration is still in possession, and that much of the mischief resulting from the last session of congress will require time to correct.

The Gazette believes that the republican party possesses the wisdom and ability to satisfy the demands that will be made and that an era of universal prosperity will follow as the result of the great land slide of Nov. 6, 1894.

Missouri is now placed in the republican column, with both branches of the legislature, judges, etc., and in case the house of representatives should elect a president in '96, Missouri's vote will be a republican vote.

And Bland, the silver dollar man of Missouri, goes down with the rotten democratic scow.

The next house will make short work with democratic fraudulent counts.

BALLOTS ILLEGAL.

Michigan Supreme Court Renders an Important Decision.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 9.—The Supreme court yesterday filed an opinion in an election case, under which ballots cast and counted in every election precinct in Michigan Tuesday are illegal clearly. The question was what constitutes a distinguishing mark, which mark is prohibited by law, the court unanimously holds any mark whatever other than a single one appropriate to designate the intention of the voter is a distinguishing mark. The results of this decision will be far reaching. The court holds that if two tickets on an official ballot are identical the marking of a cross over each is illegal; also that to mark a cross over any ticket and then before each name on such ticket, or placing a cross before the name of a candidate and then erasing the name of his opponent on another ticket is illegal. In substance the opinion holds that a single mark is a vote and is sufficient to indicate the voter's intention, and that a second mark might be agreed upon as a means of identification. It has been the practice of election inspectors to count all such doubly marked ballots, so that under this decision any of the elections held under the Australian voting system, it is believed, may be contested.

Holloway Sues Big Four for $25,000. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 9.—Edward Holloway, arrested on a charge of wrecking the Big Four train at Fontanet, causing the death of the engineer and fireman, during the strike, and who, it is said, was terrorized into making a confession which afterward he recanted, yesterday brought suit for $25,000 damages against the Big Four company for false imprisonment. Holloway was kept in jail three months. The grand jury unearthed the conspiracy of the wreck and indicted six miners for the crime, three of whom have since confessed.

MARRIED CURATES RULED OUT.

Sad State of Affairs in the Established Church in England.

Marriage seems a great failure in the case of curates in the church of England. One of them writes of the sad lot of his class as follows: "When vicars in charge of fashionable suburban parishes insist on having only young and unmarried curates it may, in the opinion of mere worldly men, be very nice for the girls, but is it very good for the church? Why do married vicars invariably advertise for unmarried curates? Are their own marriages all failures? My case is a common one. I am a curate and want work. But I am too old, being no less than thirty-seven years, and am married, so, of course, must stand aside. That I have enough income to live on is lucky for me, but does not alter the case. My father served as a curate nearly all his life and I thought I might at least be permitted to do the same, but the action of the bishops in ordaining men wholesale during the past twenty-five years has enabled the majority of vicars to reject all who, like myself, are old or married, and so we are left in the sad position of your humble servant, who signs himself 'Out of Work.'"

DOWN A HIGH BANK AN ENGINE ROLLED

BAD ACCIDENT ON THE NORTH- WESTERN ROAD.

Engineer Hatch Was Severely Hurt And the Big Machine Now Lies at the Bottom of a Forty Foot Embankment—General News From About the Town.

THERE was a disastrous wreck on the Northwestern road at the Devil's Nose, a short distance from Devil's lake yesterday. A gang of men was laying new rails, and failing to flag a freight, it plunged into an open place. The engine, with Engineer Hatch, who is well known here, still at the throttle, rolled over and over down a bank forty feet high. The engineer was badly injured, but will recover. The firemen had jumped. Several cars also went down.

"THE Prodigal Father" at the Lyceum this week is an excellent comedy. With just a dash of horseplay to give it spice, it produces fun that is fast and furious. The company is one of great and even power. The many curtain calls, which the second act received from the well filled house attested its success here. The story is simple. The company is made up of excellent material. All are young people, and to judge from their style last night each has a brilliant histrionic future. "The Prodigal Father" comes to Myers Grand on Friday, November 9, for one performance only.—Cleveland Plaindealer, Oct. 5, '94.

The plot of "The Prodigal Father" is what may be termed an exception, since, while it is a creator of the utmost hilarity, it teems with originality. The company engaged for the production this season is decidedly stronger than anything presented with "The Prodigal Father" during previous seasons, and will be seen at Myers opera house Friday, Nov. 9.

We are having a good tailoring business. Are getting the best trade of the city, as we do only first class tailoring at moderate prices. OUR "windy competitors" do not dispute anything we charge them with in our item upon "A Few Facts." Keep on publishing it, boys. If it cost us $4.70 for one publication, how much has it cost them to republish it twice? Good investment for us. Becker & Woodruff.

We could not stand the rush. More trade than we could possibly wait on notwithstanding that 7 Button horror. We procured the services of Mr. Dugan, who was with the old firm seven years, and we will try and give you more prompt service now. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We put another salesman to work this morning, Patrick Dugan. We now have five expert salesmen. The most any shoe store in the city has that we know of, is two men and a boy. This should tell who sells the most shoes. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

THIS is a great day for ulsters. Those fine Irish Frieze ulsters at $10 each are selling like hot cakes, but we have plenty of them and nobody need go without an overcoat when such as the above can be had for $10 each. T. J. Ziegler.

PROPRIETORS OF THE "TRAVELERS' HOME" SET FREE.

Last Case Tried Went Against the State So Its Twin Was Dismissed This Morning—J. C. Schuler Pays For Riding a Wheel On the Sidewalk.

The authorities do not seem to have very good luck in trying to convict Ellen Shafer of violating the excise law in supplying liquor to the patrons of the "Travelers Rest" at Orfordville. They have tried it several times in the municipal court with a varying degree of success, so the case pending against her was called in the municipal court this morning, and dismissed on motion of the district attorney. Mrs. Shafer was recently acquitted of a similar charge in the same court, after being tried by a jury, and as the present case was the twin of that one, it was thought to be worth while to push it.

John Shuler now realizes that it costs something to run a bicycle on Janesville sidewalks, and that the expense is sufficient to prohibit future use of sidewalks for that purpose. A few days ago he was exercising his wheel on South Jackson street walks, and this morning he was introduced to Judge Phelps by Chief of Police Acherson, and acknowledged that the charge lodged against him by Pauline Shultz of violating a city ordinance, was true, and was fined $1 and costs, all amounting to $4.15. The prosecution of this case will probably prevent further obstructions of the sidewalks by wheelmen.

The case of the state against Philip Jones of Milton, who is charged with the larceny of a watch, was called in the municipal court this morning and continued until November 13, the defendant giving bail in the sum of $100.

BICYCLE FACTORY A GOOD THING

Business Men's Committee Are Home After an Investigation.

President W. T. Vankirk and W. F. Carle, of the Business Men's Association, have returned from Chicago, and will make their report in relation to the bicycle factory at a meeting to be held on Monday evening. The committee is satisfied that the factory would be a good thing for Janesville, provided it can be secured on business principles. I. C. Brownell, one of the committeemen, went on to Michigan to purchase a cargo of apples.

GIRL TORN BY A VICIOUS DOG

Her Cheek Laid Open and Her Eyes Swelled Shut.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyce, who lives near Sharon, was badly bitten by a dog. The brute tore the flesh on the cheek in an ugly, jagged shape, and the teeth, as he snapped at the child a second time, struck her eye with such force that she was unable to see for a few days.

Manley M. Wilcox.

Manley M. Wilcox was born in New Hampshire, January 14, 1811. In 1836 he was married to Mable Norton, with whom he walked the journey of life for fifty-eight years, she passing over the river but fourteen days before him. In 1845 he came with his family to Wisconsin and settled in the town of Harmony where he continued to reside until called to his home October 25, '94.

For a number of years he had been in poor health and at times was a great sufferer, but amidst all this he held on to his integrity, to his God, whose service he had entered many years ago, and now at the ripe age of eighty-three he comes to the grave like the fully ripened corn. Thus the old settlers are passing away who have toiled so hard to develop this beautiful county for those who come after them. All honor to the memory of all such faithful good men.

Anna Keenan Ward.

Mrs. Anna Keenan Ward, wife of Edward Ward, died in Chicago Wednesday morning and the remains are expected to arrive in Janesville at 1:10 Saturday morning and will be taken to the home of James Ennis, 202 Cherry street and at 9:30 Saturday morning they will be taken to Albany for interment.

Some More Tables.

Our table sale was a success, our easel sale was a success, our rocking chair sale was a success. In fact everything we attempt to sell goes like water running off a duck's back. The reason is, we name prices that are trade winners, nobody can resist them, even our competitors buy from us at our sale prices. We have had so many calls for that solid oak polished center table we sold two weeks ago for $2.30 each that we have searched around and found 50 more. They will be on sale Monday morning at $2.30 each. Sale lasts one week. Frank D. Kimball.

"It's an Ill Wind That Blows No One Good." Many and many a time has the above been proven true. Today again the truth asserted itself. "That we set the best table in the city," said Mrs. Galbraith, "is a well known fact." "There is the entire 'Prodigal Father Company.' They went to another hotel, and finding it was not the Park they immediately came here. We did not solicit them, neither were there any rates made them until they came. Somebody must surely have told them The Park is the best."

JANESVILLE MEN TO HELP RATIFY.

Ogden H. Fethers and M. G. Jeffris Will Speak at Milwaukee Tonight.

Ogden H. Fethers and M. G. Jeffris will help the republicans of Wisconsin celebrate their great victory with a monster meeting at the Milwaukee Exposition building tonight. It is expected that the big auditorium will be crowded to its utmost capacity and it will seat 9,000 people comfortably. Addresses will also be made by Ex-Senator Spooner, J. V. Quarles, Eugene S. Elliott, Congressman Cooper, H. A. Taylor of Madison, Ex-Congressman LaFollette, James G. Monahan of Darlington, Capt. Esch of La Crosse and others.

Chairman W. T. Vankirk, Assemblyman-elect Fenner Kimball, Coroner-Elect Richard O'Donnell, Sheriff J. L. Bear, and a number of prominent republicans went to Milwaukee this afternoon to be present at the jollification.

M'NEIL'S LONG RIDE IS ENDED

Man Who Started For New York On a Broncho Arrives There.

Everett M. McNeil of Stoughton, who passed through Janesville last July on his way to New York on horseback has arrived at his destination. At Akron, O., the pony's back became so sore that he was obliged to sell him. He made a knapsack out of one of the saddlebags and walked the rest of the way to New York City. The route took him through the oil and gas regions of northwestern Pennsylvania and across the wild, almost uninhabited mountains and valleys of the northern part of the state. He reached New York City safe and sound and in much better health than when he started. When he was here he said he expected the prod in the ride would come in the shape of pay for articles written about his trip.

THE JOLLIFICATION IS POSTPONED.

Neither Governor-Elect Upham or Congressman Cooper Could Be Here.

Chairman W. T. Vankirk has declared the republican jollification, announced to take place at the opera house tomorrow evening, postponed until further notice. Mr. Vankirk tried to secure the attendance of Governor-elect Upham and Congressman Cooper but this afternoon received the following dispatch from Chairman Thom: "Upham will be in Chicago tomorrow; Cooper is sick. Monahan is not here and I am dead, but will come Monday or Tuesday." Not being able to secure the attendance of Governor Upham or Congressman Cooper, Mr. Vankirk deemed it best to postpone the jubilee.

Zahn-Schultz.

Herman Zahn and Miss Louise Schultz were married at St. Paul's church last evening, Rev. C. J. Koerner officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Anna Zahn, sister of the groom, and Miss Lizzie Yankey, while Albert Zahn, brother of the groom, and Edward Schultz, brother of the bride, were the groomsman. A wedding supper was served at the home of the groom's parents, 207 Linn street, after the ceremony. The groom is engaged in the saloon business, while the bride, whose home is in Lyke Mills, Wis., has been engaged as a domestic in the family of John W. Hogan. Mr. Zahn and his bride will make their home at 11 North Academy street.

A Pure Candy.

We are making a new candy which we guarantee pure, no starch in it, a fact which we can prove by anybody who will step into our candy kitchen to see how it is made. The above is a candy we will sell for 10 cents a pound or three pounds for 25 cents. Any good chocolate that is sold anywhere in this city for 25 cents a pound, we sell for 15 cents a pound. Tomorrow is our regular taffy day. All taffy, peanut, molasses, cream and strawberry candy 10 cents a pound. Fancy celery 8 cents a bunch. We also expect a fancy line of oranges, which we will sell very cheap. Come and see. JOHN SPIVAK, 6 South Main St.

Consternation in the Camp.

Great consternation prevails in the (keep the prices dark) camp to-day. We invaded their territory, we surrounded them, we pounced down on them with an avalanche of prices that scattered them far and wide. They have not recovered from the shock, and neither will they, for we propose to keep cutting the prices on our nice new goods until not a squeak will be heard. BORT, BAILEY & Co.

DOE SAYS IT WAS NOT THE TARIFF

That Issue, He Claims, Cannot Be Settled Until It Is Tried.

A Washington dispatch says that as a general rule nobody occupying a prominent place in the administration cared to talk for publication respecting the election. The single exception was Assistant Secretary Doe, of the war department who had been fully confident that his party would hold its own at least in his native state of Wisconsin. He said:

"The election in some respects reminds one very much of that of 1874. This election will also be claimed by the late calamity howlers to be a decisive verdict against tariff reform, but it is in fact nothing of the kind. That is one issue which never will be solved until a tariff for revenue has been given a fair trial."

We will not dodge on prices. We will not hide our efforts in a vague uncertain manner, and juggle our prices and cover up our meaning so that you cannot tell whether you are getting bargains or not. But we will come right out squarely every time and let unequivocal figures tell our story. In order to clean up a pile of stuff before we move we will place on sale a whole broadside of Bargains.

We are in position to sell dry goods cheaper than any merchant who is cumbered with piles of goods bought at higher prices in times when goods were high. We want to double our business and the way we propose to do it is to always make our prices lower than any other firm. Come to us, we never dodge. We never juggle our prices and cover up our meaning. REST AS A BEAUTIFIER.

A Few Old Notions Regarding Work Expended.

A doctor, perhaps speaking from practical experience, says, "Always begin your holidays with a rest." In these modern days we do not make sufficient use of our beds. I am satisfied that many overworked women would derive incalculable benefit if they would find the time and persuade themselves to take a long day's rest in bed. Rest during the first few days of a holiday is for the purpose of allowing of some recovery of power. Of what use is it trying to extract energy out of jaded muscles? The tissues throughout the body are in need of renovation—that is to say, the supply of healthy nutriment. For some time previously the supply of nutriment sufficient for their needs has utterly failed. Owing to the depressed condition of health, the overworked person has been unable to eat, while, from the same reason, the food which has been eaten has failed to digest. Thus common sense clearly indicates that for the first few days of a holiday the policy of absolute rest should be adopted by the overworked person. Then, with the beginning of the recovery of power comes the delicious sensation of energy being again in the ascendant.

There was a prevalent theory in our grandmothers' days that comfort and rest were wicked, and that to lie down in the daytime was permissible only to women seriously ill. This notion is now among the exploded ones and is generally admitted that whatever time is taken for rest should be spent in a horizontal position, if possible, since there is then no strain on the muscles and the circulation is equalized. It is rather troublesome to change one's garments for a half hour's rest, but if one has a pretty wrapper in which to take the siesta it does not seem such a waste of time. The sketch shows a nightgown of plain white batiste combined with the same goods embroidered with dots. It is gathered at the throat and shoulders and is trimmed with embroidered frills and mauve ribbons.

Origin of the Name Yankee.

For the last 100 or more years the philologists have been pondering and theorizing as to the probable origin of the word "Yankee," and yet the mystery has not been solved. Aubury, an English writer, says: "It is derived from a Cherokee Indian word—'eankke'—which signifies both 'coward' and 'slave.' It was bestowed on the inhabitants of New England by the inhabitants of Virginia because the former would not assist them in their war with the Indians, from whose language the word was taken and was at first only a term of derision."

A Growing Barn.

On the Barkus place, in Delaware, Ohio, stands a barn, which has an interesting feature connected with it. It grows larger every day. The man who built it used for corner posts a species of willow, still green. These have taken root in the ground and are still growing, so that the structure is considerable higher than when first put up. Limbs as large as a man's arm have grown out of the posts, and are used for hanging harness and for other conveniences.

MRS. IDA CASLER.

Her Advice to Over-Ambitious Women.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Mrs. Ida Casler, of 126 Olive Street, Syracuse, N.Y., believes that there is no amount of money large enough to equal a good, sound, healthy constitution.

Here is a history of her case:—

She was so ill with falling of the womb and leucorrhoea that she could not stand. She was attended by several doctors without benefit, and was completely discouraged.

One evening she heard what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, and decided to try it, together with Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and it is well she did, for she says:—

"I am now well and strong. I am not troubled with either trouble, and all owing to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"If more women would use the Compound there would be less suffering in the world. Many women bring on their troubles by over-work. Remember good health will outbid riches every time."

Another new salesman goes to work for us this morning—Mr. Patrick Dugan. We now have five salesmen busy all day long and way into the night. The greatest number in any other store in the city is two and a boy. We are selling the shoes now being sold in Janesville. We will continue to sell them. We pay spot cash—we will start a shoe factory if necessary. And if necessary we will move to Aurora. We have the money and ability to buy and sell more goods than both of our friends combined.

Come on, gentlemen; don't hesitate, don't lay down, trot us a heat. We like it, don't you?

Any time anyone, whether a retailer or a proprietor of a small shoe factory, wants to take issue with us, we invite them to sail in. We're open for a date. These prices on Rubbers cannot be duplicated by any wholesale house, let alone

Riding on the top most wave you will see hundreds of happy faces going both ways. They all have been to our Great and Only Sale of many articles at

30 Cents on the Dollar

None but the worthy get what they deserve. Our customers are all worthy of the great suits, overcoats and ulsters we are selling at $10 each. We are worthy of their trade and we get it. We have added more help for Saturday. We did not have help enough last Saturday. Seven days of this month have passed and gone and we will wager any reasonable amount that our aggregate sales for the six days are more than any one of the other clothing stores in the city “take in” in a month. What is the reason? The prices we are naming, and the High Grade Clothing we are selling.
